Department of Atomic Energy

Recruitment and Promotion Guidelines in DAE for Auxiliary Personnel

July 2010

PREFACE

In order to fulfill the mandate, Department of Atomic Energy (DAE) has given due importance to the development of human resources. Recruitment and promotion systems formulated for its personnel in Scientific and Technical categories are reviewed from time to time, keeping in pace with developing scenario. The norms are published as printed document and displayed on the DAE/BARC web-site.

Similarly the recruitment and promotion norms in respect of Attendant / Hospital Attendant in Auxiliary category have been formulated. The candidates with 10th standard passed are now recruited as Attendant A or Hospital Attendant A depending upon the requirement. Reservation orders of Government of India in respect of candidates belonging to SC / ST / OBC / Physically handicapped are followed for direct recruitment and relaxed standards are permitted for promotion of SC/ST officials.

This document summarises the recruitment and promotion system in respect of Attendant / Hospital Attendant in auxiliary category deployed in DAE.

RECRUITMENT AND PROMOTION SYSTEMS IN DEPARTMENT OF ATOMIC ENERGY FOR ATTENDANT AND HOSPITAL ATTENDANT (AUXILIARY CATEGORY)

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Sixth Pay Commission recommended that in future all recruitments in the Central Government would only be in the posts belonging to Group C or higher categories carrying minimum qualification of matriculation. The existing Group D employees who have passed tenth standard and also those who have not passed class tenth examination to be placed in pay band with the Grade Pay of Rs.1,800 after imparting appropriate training to those who have not passed the tenth standard. The recommendation was mainly to herald multi-skilling in the Government when one employee would perform the tasks hitherto performed by different categories of Group D employees. Keeping in view the recommendations of Sixth Pay Commission, the Recruitment Norms and Promotion Norms in respect of persons in the grades of Helper (CM/T), Mali, Tradesman (CM/LS) have been revised and redesignated as Attendant / Hospital Attendant. Attendant and Hospital Attendant posts are auxiliary posts.

The following Sections give the details of the revised norms.

2. RECRUITMENT

2.1 Recruitment is normally carried out through open advertisements in Employment News, local and / or national newspapers as applicable. Local employment exchanges are also approached for recruitment of personnel in Attendant and Hospital Attendant categories.

2.2 In order to fulfill the specific requirement of Hospital, 'Hospital Attendant' category has been introduced on par with Attendant category. The proposed entry grade to Hospital Attendant category is Hospital Attendant 'A' (PB1 with GP 1800) with educational qualification as tenth pass.

2.3 Recruitment to the posts of Attendant and Hospital Attendant is carried out as per the stipulated guidelines for recruitment as indicated in APPENDIX I.

2.4 The selection procedure involves screening followed by interview for these types of categories of staff. Selection is based on the assessment by the appropriate Standing Selection Committee.

2.5 Reservation orders of Government of India in respect of candidates belonging to SC / ST / OBC / Physically Handicapped (PH) as applicable to DAE are followed.

2.6 Age relaxation is admissible to SC / ST / OBC / PH / Ex-servicemen candidates, as per Government of India orders on the subject.

3. PROMOTION

3.1 The existing personnel in the Helper(CM/T), Mali and T/A(CM/LS) categories have been redesignated as 'Attendant / Hospital Attendant' as the case may be.

3.2 All promotion cases in Attendant and Hospital Attendant categories are considered for the Next Higher Grade (NHG) as applicable only, except in the cases of candidates acquiring additional qualification while in service, where the cases shall be examined as per guidelines mentioned below in para 3.6.

3.3 The following table specify minimum residency period in the lower grades, which are applicable for outstanding candidates. [This minimum residency period is as per the prevailing practice followed, however, it is liable to change as and when revision in the promotion guidelines are undertaken]. This period would be longer for other cases as per guidelines issued by the Competent Authority. These guidelines are based on ACR grading for specified number of years immediately preceding the date of proposal for promotion. Meeting the ACR grades alone may not be sufficient for considering a candidate for promotion to the next higher grade. The Screening Committees also consider other aspects such as skills, productivity, inter-personal relation as applicable etc. After screening in, the candidates are interviewed by the appropriate Standing Selection Committees constituted by Competent Authority for promotion to NHG.

3.4 For the first promotion after recruitment, the date of promotion shall be with reference to the rationalized date of increment, which is July 1 as per the recommendation of Sixth CPC. However, a shortfall in length of service upto 6 months in the specified residency period in the grade for the first promotion can be condoned, if the candidate is eligible for promotion otherwise. All other promotions thereafter shall be considered with reference to the date of last promotion.

3.5 Candidates who are on probation / extended probation shall not be considered for promotion.

3.6 Guidelines for change of track / promotion after acquisition of additional qualification while in service

- (i) Promotion / change of track on acquisition of additional qualification while in service for promotion from Attendant / Hospital Attendant to Technician category (i.e. Auxiliary to Technical category) has been introduced.
- (ii) Attendant / Hospital Attendant who have acquired additional qualification of (i) HSC (Science) and (ii) ITI during the course of their service with the approval of competent authority would be considered for change of track / promotion to Technician as per following paragraphs.
- (iii) Promotion or Change of track from Attendant / Hospital Attendant to Technician while in service will not be considered without acquiring additional qualification as per the Recruitment Norms.

- (iv) All those who acquire additional qualification will have to appear for departmental examination and those who obtain marks / percentile above a certain threshold would be considered for promotion / track change. Those who have scored less than the threshold would be given one more chance for appearing in the departmental examination. Successful candidates will have to appear for interview. Only one chance shall be given for appearing in the interview.
- (v) Promotion / change of track on acquisition of additional qualification while in service can be considered for promotion from Attendant / Hospital Attendant to Technician category (i.e. Auxiliary to Technical category) on the basis of availability of vacancies in the respective trade. 20% of vacancies of Technical category in a particular year can be earmarked for accommodating persons, who have acquired additional qualification. These persons have to undergo induction training for the respective trade and will then be placed where the vacancies are available.
- (vi) Following will be the criteria for considering cases for promotion or change of track on acquiring additional qualification while in service.
