2. We heard both the parties.
3. Referring to some interview held in June 2012 for the Diploma in Radiological Physics, the Appellant had requested for the entire merit list of successful candidates. The CPIO had provided him the list of the candidates found successful. Not satisfied, he had preferred an appeal but it is not clear if the Appellate Authority had passed any order on his appeal.
4. During the hearing, the Appellant requested that he should be provided with the marks awarded to the successful candidates. Although he had not asked for this information specifically earlier, there is no harm in disclosing this information. Therefore, we direct the CPIO to write to him within 10 working days of receiving this order and to provide him the marks awarded to all the successful candidates, separately, for the written test and for the interview.

5. The appeal is disposed of accordingly.
